Class Description
This class is an intermediate course into microeconomics. The class can be divided into 3 parts:
- Investigating aspects of consumer choice.
- Derive a firm’s production decision in different markets and compare their welfare effects.
- Study the exciting field of game theory and strategic thinking and its application to Duopolies.

Although there will be some overlap of ideas with introductory courses in economics the approach is more quantitative and a knowledge of calculus is necessary. Economics is learned actively through practice. Students are expected to attend lectures, read the textbook, and work through practice problems.

Grading:
- Problem sets = 10%  (due at the beginning of class – Late homework will NOT be accepted)
- Quizzes = 20%
- Two exams = 35% each
  o  Midterm Exam: Mon. 2/10
  o  Final Exam: Thurs. 3/20

The grading policy of the Department of Economics determines the range for the Median grade in principles of economics courses to be between 2.9 and 3.1. A distribution of the grades on a 4.0 scale will be determined from the raw scores out of 100 to maintain this policy.

Note: Any issues with the scores on your Quizzes or Exams must be resolved within 1 week after they are handed back to you. It is part of your responsibility to verify the entries on the Catalyst grade book.

Make up Quizzes & Exams:
There are no make-up quizzes; however, your lowest quiz score will be dropped.

There are no make-up exams. In the rare circumstance of a student being hospitalized just prior to or during the midterm due to an accident or other ailment, you can come speak to me individually. There is no make up for the final. If you happen to miss the final, you will receive an “incomplete” for a grade in the course.

Absences from Class:
If you are absent from class for any reason, you are responsible for getting the notes and material you missed from another student in the class.

Disability Accommodations:
If you have a documented disability and feel comfortable sharing that with me, please do so at the earliest time possible so that I can help make any necessary accommodations. I also encourage you to work with staff at the Office of Disability Resources.
Academic Conduct Policy
The Economics Department supports the University policies regarding academic honesty and classroom behavior. Please see the Academic Conduct Policy which is uploaded to Catalyst for more information.
